If you don't use the suggested chord shapes below then be sure to keep the line cliche of the progression of Gm Gbaug Bb/F Em7b5 similar as this is important to have mostly the same notes and just have a descending chromatic bass line in this part.

Gm/F xx3333 can be substituted for Bb/F, and E7b5 xx2330 (no3) can be substituted for Em7b5.

What do you think about this tab?

 I think replacing D with D7 gives it a nice kick lol

For my vocal range, transposing -10 for "easier" chords and then capo 3/4 works. I have lower female voice but it does go high and then very low, and my vocal range is mid-low.

Personal opinion, but think adding an Ebm6 after every Ebm sounds good.
